

Quarterly Business Review — Product (Q4 2025)

Rodriguez, Figueroa and Sanchez · Prepared by Joshua Booth, Head of Product

Joshua Booth, Head of Product, presented the Product team's results for Q4 2025 at Rodriguez, Figueroa and Sanchez's quarterly business review. Performance in the UK & Ireland region was highlighted as a key driver of the quarter, with the team crediting close coordination between Product and the Customer Success organization.

Among the quarter's notable wins, Tim Patton of Pham-Shields expanded their footprint with ScaleStack Storage, while Spencer Haynes of Peters-Black renewed their agreement covering DataPulse Analytics. Joshua Booth noted that ConnectBoard continues to see strong adoption across the UK & Ireland customer base.

Joshua Booth also recognized Joseph Schaefer (Product Analyst) for outstanding contributions during the quarter, and reiterated that the Product team will continue reporting into the broader Product organization for 2025 planning.
